

Arrak Oh babe, what would you say?

SSATB a cappella

Text & musik: Eileen Smith Arr: Anders Klint

Oh babe, what would you say?

The image shows a page from a musical score. A large, semi-transparent watermark reading ".arrakmus" diagonally across the page is overlaid on the main content. The main content consists of a single-line musical staff with black dots representing notes. Below the staff, lyrics are written in two columns: "li - tely turn a - long the Mil - ky". To the left of the staff, a note says "N.B. This page is a low quality sample". At the top left, there is a small snippet of text: "you ke / say," followed by a redacted section.
